

SUMMER IS THE TIME TO PREPARE FOR ENTERING FAIRS

Take some time this summer to learn new skills and prepare to enter the local fairs. Youth entries are welcome and youngsters can earn a few dollars by sharing their talents.

- Look over your student art and enter your best items.
- Plant seeds. Flowers and vegetables can be entered in Fairs.
- Practice baking and enter cookies, candy, brownies.
- Learn to knit and enter mittens, a hat or scarf.
- Handcrafts such as Legos, beadwork, weaving can be entered.

Shelburne Grange Fair welcomes entries from the whole family

Saturday, August 24, at Fellowship Hall in Shelburne

All can enter

Items that can be entered are in the Premium Book—available in early July on line at www.shelburnegrange.org and at your local library in August.

Entries are brought to Fellowship Hall on Thursday evening or Friday before 6 p.m. Entries are judged on Friday evening and exhibits and prizes can be seen on Saturday from 9 am to 4 p.m. Entries and prizes can be picked up on Saturday after 4 p.m.

Sample entries: A Lego Creation
